Project IMPACT – Benefits Planning

The Independent Living Center of North Shore and Cape Ann, Inc. (ILCNSCA) in collaboration with the Massachusetts Rehabilitation Commission (MRC) hosts Project IMPACT Benefits Planning on the first Tuesday of every month in one hour sessions from 1:00 pm to 4:00 pm. An MRC Benefits Specialist will help you understand the impact that work will have on your cash and healthcare benefits in a personal, confidential setting at no charge. Registration required. 978-741-0077 ext 140 or email smcduff@ilcnsc.org.

Please request communications accommodations at least two weeks in advance. ILCNSCA is scent-free to accommodate persons with chemical sensitivities. Please refrain from wearing scents such as perfumes or scented clothing. ILCNSCA is partially funded by the City of Salem Department of Planning & Community Development and the U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development. ILCNSCA does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion, familial status, sexual orientation or disability. ILCNSCA is an equal opportunity employer.
